Last Week's Giving Efforts

Mission Gift Emphasis

This month's mission gifts collected will support the Evergreen Association of American Baptist Churches. Their mission is to build bridges between communities, provide resources to equip member churches to share Christ and teach God's word, and to translate our unity to the world. Last week $40.00 was collected to support this mission effort. If giving online or using a giving envelope, please designate your gift in the memo area. God bless you.

Capital Campaign

Thanks to everyone who is participating in the Capital Improvement Campaign. Last week $50.00 was given towards this effort. If you have not completed a pledge form please contact a Capital Campaign member. If giving online or using a giving envelope please designate your gift in the memo area. God bless you and thank you for your support.

Operation Mustard Seed

OMS gifts collected will support the funding of staff development and hiring of key personnel as reaffirmed at the 2017 church conference. Each week there will be a different amount requested.

Amount requested for today: January 9, 2022– $10.24

Amount given on January 2, 2021 – $91.95

Number of participants: January 2, 2021 – 8

Number of people needed to reach level goal: 76

If giving online or using a giving envelope please designate your gift in the memo area. God bless you.

Blacks at a Glance

Chef Kristi Brown and Damon Bomar,
Owners of Communion Restaurant

Chef Kristi Brown and her son, Damon Bomar, opened Communion Restaurant and Bar at the end of 2020, in the Central District on the site of the first Black-owned bank in the Pacific Northwest – Liberty Bank. The menu has something for everyone – greens, mac and cheese, black eyed pea hummus, clams, mussels, Creole catfish and grits, just to name a few. Brown is Chef and owner and has twenty-eight years of culinary experience from dishwasher, prep-cook, and caterer to owner. Since opening they have been named on restaurant who's who lists. Bottom line, Chef Kristi and her organization, That Black Girl Cooks, hopes to engage and inspire community, and connect people with a nurturing and wholesome lifestyle.
