

Senior Pastoral Assistant
Joseph C. Manaway

Joseph accepted the call to preach on Sunday, March 12, 2006, and preached his first public message on Sunday, August 20, 2006, entitled "I Had It, I Lost It, I Want It Back!"

On October 3, 2008, he received an Associate of Science Degree in Recording Arts and Performance from Full Sail University in Winter Park, FL. In the summer of 2012, he graduated from the University of Phoenix, earning a Bachelor of Science in Psychology. July 15, 2018, he graduated from Faith International University, earning a Master of Arts in Christian Counseling. Currently, Joseph is pursuing a Master of Arts in Theology from the prestigious Seattle Pacific University Seminary.

Joseph was ordained as a Minister of the Gospel on September 20, 2009; on February 26, 2012, he was ordained and charged as the Young Adult Ministry Pastor of the Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church in Seattle, WA.

In March 2013, Pastor Manaway answered the call of God again and relocated to Las Vegas, NV, to serve as the Youth & Young Adult Pastor of the Second Baptist Church under the direction of Pastor Donald E. Chaney. In January 2016, Pastor Manaway was elevated to Assistant Pastor/Director of Youth & Young Adult Ministries. In January 2018, he began hosting "ARISE 4th Sunday Night Fellowship" services, a series of fellowship services tailored to reach millennials.

In August 2019, Pastor Manaway served as one of the Co-Directors for the preachers' track of the Young Leaders Conference, a gathering of 5,000 ministers, business executives, entrepreneurs, and creatives that meet annually in Atlanta, GA. Additionally, in November 2019, Pastor Manaway was privileged to serve as guest chaplain for the 2019-2020 NBA Champions, the Los Angeles Lakers.

Finally, he now proudly serves as Assistant to the Pastor/Youth and Young Adult Pastor of Mount Calvary Baptist Church in Fairfield/Suisun, CA, where Dr. Claybon Lea Jr. serves as senior pastor. He has also been blessed to travel the length and breadth of the USA and also the US Virgin Islands, preaching the gospel and sharing the love of Christ to all humanity.
